THE HERO OF MANILA.

Commodore George Dewey, who figured valiantly in the fight off Manila harbor, is one of the most gallant officers in the American navy. He was a hero of the civil war, but only those whose memories reach back to the big days of '61-'65 will recall him. For the past thirty years or more he has been serving his country on the seas, and at the various land stations and works of the navy, and has been in the public eye but little. It required the alarm of war to bring him with a bound to the very pinnacle of conspicuousness. The commander of the Asiatic squadron is a quiet man, who impresses one with anything but the sturdy heroism and intense patriotism that are wrapped up within his calm exterior. He is no theoretical fighter. In his youth, after his liberation from the toils of Annapolis, he was a lieutenant on board the steam frigate Mississippi—the brave ship that carried the colors of another hero—the immortal Perry. The Mississippi was shattered with confederate explosives in the great river for which it was named. It did not give up until it was beaten to pieces. Lieutenant Dewey stuck to his guns until the last, and he did not quit the vessel until he went with the captain after all others had got out of the destruction. Admiral Porter singled out the youthful lieutenant for special praise. He spoke of him in words that are the sweetest reward that an officer can be given—above wealth or fame, or above even promotion. But promotion came promptly for the gallant young sailor. In 1865 he was a lieutenant-commander. As commander he was stationed in the Asiatic squadron, of which he is now the master, and in 1884 he was lifted to the rank of captain, which was to be soon followed by the uniform of a commodore. He knows the waters of the earth well, and has ever stood high with the authorities at Washington. The commodore is a Vermont, and is not yet 60 years old.

NO INTERVENTION.

Washington, May 3.—Lending diplomats say no step toward European intervention is likely to be hastened by this disaster of Spain. It is looked upon simply as a war reverse, which cannot be turned into political channels by Spanish appeals to the great powers. This is the view alike in British, French and German quarters. It was rather expected from the British, but it is none the less apparent among French and German officials, who regard the time for mediation or intervention as past.

SCHOOL BOARD.

The school board met in adjourned session last night to take up the matter of finishing the new school house. The committee reported that the contractors had failed to meet them, and a motion to reject all bids was carried, and Trustees Rose, Weil and Bauer appointed to confer with the council and ascertain if it can render any assistance.

The Surrender of Manila Has Been Confirmed, and Commodore Dewey Is in Full Control.

TO ESTABLISH PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT.

Ten Thousand American Troops Will Soon Be on Their Way to the Philippine Islands.

GEN. MILES URGES HASTE.

Wants to Lead 30,000 American Troops in Cuba This Week. He So Advises the War Board.

TOMORROW MAY BE THE DAY

When the Landing of the American Troops on Cuban Soil May Be Begun.

A GREAT DAY FOR CUBAN FREEDOM.

After he had annihilated the Spanish fleet—for even Spanish reports no longer attempt to describe the result as any less than annihilation—Admiral Dewey gave the captain-general of the Philippines at Manila until 11:30 Tuesday morning to surrender, stating that unless his demands were complied with by that time he would then at once begin the bombardment of the city.

At the expiration of the specified time the governor surrendered and today the stars and stripes float over Manila, and the Philippine islands are lost to Spain, probably forever. The details of the action but add to the glory of the American victory. The first engagement lasted for an hour. After a lull it was renewed at close quarters, and what was left of the Spanish fleet was quickly destroyed. The American guns were then turned upon the land batteries, which were soon silenced.

The American ships were apparently uninjured.

Secretary Long has telegraphed orders to San Francisco for two swift cruisers to be loaded with coal and dispatched immediately to the relief of Commodore Dewey's squadron.

Ten thousand troops will be sent to Commodore Dewey at once via San Francisco and several ship loads of supplies at the same time. This was decided upon today at a cabinet meeting.

The gunboat Nashville captured the Spanish mail steamer Argonata near Cienfuegos. Ten Spanish officers and ten soldiers were made prisoners of war on the Nashville. The arms were seized along with 4,500 rounds of ammunition. The passengers were sent ashore, while a prize crew was put on the Argonata.

The converted yacht Eagle had a narrow escape from torpedo boats off Cienfuegos Friday, but the cruiser Marblehead came to her rescue and enemy was beaten off.

IMPORTANT CABINET MEETING.

Washington, May 3.—It was decided today at a cabinet meeting to send troops to San Francisco at once. From there they will be sent to Manila.

"NOT VICTORY, BUT ANNIHILATION."

London, May 3.—The Daily Mail in an editorial yesterday on the engagement at Manila says: "It was in Nelson's words, 'Not victory, but annihilation,' and it proved Commodore Dewey a worthy disciple of the heroic Farragut. It is characteristic of the American race to be generous to the weak, and as

THE SPANISH FLAG HAULED DOWN.

NEW YORK, May 3, 12:57.—A dispatch direct from Hong Kong just in says that Manila has surrendered, and that the American flag floats over the city. A London dispatch says that the British Colonial officer has just given out the official information that Commodore Dewey will establish a provisional government in Manila.

THE INVASION OF CUBA.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—General Miles is today urging the War Board to put 30,000 troops into Cuba this week. He believes that an American army of this size, acting in conjunction with Gomez and the American squadron, can effect the capture of Havana in a very short time.

TAMPA, Fla., May 3.—Large transport ships arrived here today, and it is believed that they will take troops to Cuba tomorrow. The soldiers here are packing their tents preparatory to leaving.

THIRSTING FOR VENGEANCE.

Madrid, May 3.—The Spanish mobs are today demanding vengeance. The terrible defeat at Manila is now well known, and with each new detail the rage of the mob increases. The government is making the minister of marine the scape-goat for the Manila disaster, and he may be mobbed today.

THE QUEEN REGENT IN DANGER.

Madrid, May 3.—This city is in the possession of mobs today. They throng the streets and gather about the official buildings. The ministry and the crown are threatened, and the overthrow of both is today believed to be certain. The Queen is thoroughly frightened, and the military forces of the city are powerless to stay the demands of the people for vengeance.

HAVANA IS PANIC-STRICKEN.

Havana, May 3.—It is believed here that Admiral Sampson is arranging to bombard this city tomorrow, and the city is intensely excited. The American squadron has allowed an English battleship to come through the blockade to take off the English subjects here who are anxious to leave the city. Havana is panic-stricken with fear.

THE CABLE IS CUT.

London, May 3.—Commodore Dewey has cut the cable and has one end on his ship. But he has no operator now, and the cable may not be mended so that messages can be filed before this evening. This report comes through Spanish sources and is considered reliable.

Hong Kong, May 3.—It has been learned here that Commodore Dewey has a dispatch boat en route here bringing news and his official dispatches to the American Government. Dispatches from Manila by the overland route, which is yet in the Spanish possession, says the cable is cut fifty miles out, and it will be a week before it is repaired.

ENGLAND'S IMPORTANT MOVE.

Washington, May 3.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister here has resigned and will return at once to England.

He will be succeeded immediately by the highest officers in the British department of state. This is considered a most important step on the part of Great Britain, and foreshadows most important diplomatic correspondence between the two great Anglo-Saxon nations.

The victory of the American fleet, under Commodore Dewey, at Manila, makes the United States at once an important factor in the Chinese question, and England evidently sees this. The future of the Philippine Islands is now the all-absorbing topic of conversation in diplomatic circles. The talk of the great Anglo-Saxon alliance is being revived.

WESTWARD, HO!

Washington, May 3.—In it is probable that 10,000 soldiers, many of them being volunteers, will be ordered to the Pacific coast immediately, to go to the Philippine Islands to aid Commodore Dewey. The whole number of men on Dewey's squadron is only about 1,800, and is totally insufficient to garrison the city. It is expected the westward movement of troops will begin at once.

NOTHING FROM COMMODORE DEWEY TODAY.

Washington, May 3.—Nothing has been heard by the government from Commodore Dewey today, and nothing is expected until his dispatch boat reaches Hong Kong.

THE PRESIDENT CONFERS HONORS.

Washington, May 3.—The President today appointed Fitzhugh Lee and General Shofner major generals of volunteers. He will appoint Governor Taylor, of Tennessee, a major general tomorrow.

MEN OF MODERATE MEANS

Need no longer regard tailor-made clothes with fear and trembling. Dalton now makes clothes in his own shop, here at home—makes the clothes right, makes the bill right. It costs but a trifle more to wear garments that fit than those that a most fit. The same of style and workmanship is ours. Drop in at 333 Broadway and see about that belated spring suit. You'll be glad you waited—t'll cost you so little.

DALTON, THE TAILOR

England Makes a Most Important Diplomatic Move—Her Minister, Sir Julian Pauncefote, Resigns.

PRESIDENT HONORS GENERAL FITZHUGH LEE

England Amazed at the Bravery and Daring of Dewey and His Gallant Sailors and Marines.

EUROPE MAY INTERFERE.

Washington, May 3.—The victory of Commodore Dewey is of such importance that it is now thought possible that there will be European interference to avoid any permanent strategic change in the possession of the Philippine Islands. This interference will be on the side of the European powers, if it comes at all, and will be directed toward Spain. Should it, however, be directed toward the United States, it will be met with the firm stand that a treaty of peace between the United States and Spain will settle the matter, and that the United States will make no promise which will bind them to any stipulations at the dictation of European powers.

ADMIRAL DEWEY.

Washington, May 3.—There is no question that Commodore Dewey will be made an admiral at once, and that as soon as possible promotion will take place in the Asiatic fleet.

AFTER THE SPANISH.

Washington, May 3.—The President has in course of preparation a proclamation which will be issued within the next day or two, fixing the status of Spanish citizens in this country. Generally speaking, the proclamation will make it known that such subjects are under suspicion, and it is believed will announce that stringent measures will be taken to prevent their hindering a speedy and successful conduct of war against the kingdom of Spain.

MADRID UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

The Military Called Out to Protect the Lives of the Queen and Her Ministers.

HAVANA CITY PANIC STRICKEN

The People are Fleeing From the City to Escape the Expected American Bombardment.

BOMBARDMENT MAY BEGIN AT ANY TIME.

London, May 3.—The Madrid correspondent of the Standard, telegraphing at midnight, says: "Senor Aguilera, the civil governor of Madrid, has just posted on the walls of the home office the customary proclamation intimating that the civil authorities consider the circumstances justify the handing over to the military authorities the mission of keeping order. "Lieut. Gen. Daban, captain general of Madrid, has assumed charge, and the first military patrols have just appeared in the Puerto Del Sol. The measure has been taken in consequence of the attitude of certain political parties since yesterday."

The whole garrison is ready in barracks. The same correspondent also says that the cabinet council has decided to immediately proclaim a state of siege.

THE OREGON.

Washington, May 3.—The naval experts have reached the conclusion that the Spanish fleet which left Cape Verde will cruise along the north coast of South America. The purpose of this is to intercept the Oregon and Marietta and endeavor to dispose of these vessels before going to Porto Rico. The Oregon will report next at Pernambuco, 700 miles from Rio Janeiro, which port she cleared yesterday. There is no possibility of any danger occurring to the American ships between these two points. Being of this opinion, plans are being devised to protect the Oregon and frustrate the plans of the enemy. It is stated that the Oregon will not be left to combat Spanish warships alone. Since Dewey's successful naval engagement, naval officials are anxious to engage the Spanish navy everywhere possible.
